East European Jewish Affairs

Volume 44 Numbers 2–3 August–December 2014 ISSN: 1350-1674

Introduction
151     David Shneer and Anna Shternshis
East European Jewish Affairs: new borders and boundaries

Articles
154     Jonathan Dekel-Chen
East European Jewish migration: inside and outside

171     Eli Lederhendler
The interrupted chain: traditional receiver countries, migration regimes, and the East
European Jewish diaspora, 1918–39

187     Frank Wolff
Global walls and global movement: new destinations in Jewish migration, 1918–1939

205     Kenneth B. Moss
Thinking with restriction: immigration restriction and Polish Jewish accounts of the post-liberal state, empire, race, and political reason 1926–39

225     Anna Lipphardt
Communities on the move: reconsidering the history of East European Jews after the Holocaust from a landlebensraum perspective

241     Jeffrey Veidlinger
One doesn’t make out much with furs in Palestine: the migration of Jewish displaced persons, 1945–7

253     Rafi Tsirkin-Sadan
Between marginal and transnational: post-Soviet immigration in Hebrew literature

269     Book Reviews

286     Listings
Notes for Contributors

East European Jewish Affairs is a refereed journal. Articles submitted to the journal should be original contributions and should not be under consideration for any other publication at the same time. If another version of the article is under consideration by another publication, or has been, or will be published elsewhere, authors should clearly indicate this at the time of submission. There is no standard length for article but approximately 8,000 words (including notes and references) is a useful target. Details of the author’s institutional affiliation and full postal and email addresses should be included on a separate page, along with any acknowledgements and a note of the total word count of the article. An abstract of approximately 150–200 words should be included, along with a short biographical note to appear at the end of the article.

Electronic submission. Authors should send submissions as an electronic file (no hard copy necessary) to EEJA@Colorado.edu. Electronic material should be in PC compatible MS Word format. Endnotes should be used rather than footnotes.

Tables and figures. Tables and figures must be saved as separate files, not included as part of the text, and should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals. The captions to illustrations should be gathered together and also typed out on a separate sheet. The approximate position of tables and figures should be indicated in the manuscript. Captions should include keys to any symbols used. All tables and figures should be referred to in the text. Figures supplied in electronic format should be in uncompressed .tif or .jpg formats. Figures will not normally be redrawn by the publisher, so please ensure the quality is suitable for reproduction in print.

Style. British spellings are preferred, quotations of five lines or more should be indented, capitals should be used sparingly. Preferred date formats: 25 December 1971, 1983–85, the 1930s.

Notes and references. Reference citation in the text should adhere to the Chicago Humanities style, as follows:

Book

Journal article

Proofs. will be sent to the authors for correction, and should be returned to the publisher within three days of receipt. Major alterations to the text at this stage will not be accepted.

Corresponding authors will receive free online access to their article through our website (www.tandfonline.com) and corresponding authors of articles published in EEJA will have the opportunity to copy the complimentary copy of their containing their article. Reprints of articles published in this journal can be purchased through Rightslink® when proofs are received or alternatively on our journals website. If you have any queries, please contact our reprints department at reprints@tandf.co.uk.

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or licence the publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to Taylor & Francis. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article; and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication without prior permission from Taylor & Francis, provided that acknowledgement is given to the Journal as the original source of publication, and that Taylor & Francis is notified so that our records show that its use is properly authorised. Authors retain a number of other rights under the Taylor & Francis rights policies, which can be found at http://journalauthors.tandf.co.uk/preparation/copyright.asp. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.

Typoset by Tectset Composition India (P) Ltd, Bangalore and Chennai, India
Printed by Brit & Bain, UK